

TULSA COUNTY VALUES INCREASE 20 MILLION

Tentative Estimates By County Assessors Show Total Taxable Wealth at $105,754,504

FIGURES ARE NOT APPROVED

State Equalization Board Has Not Yet Passed on Amounts; Public Utilities May Be Increased

The total taxable valuation of Tulsa city and county property, as compiled from tentative estimates made by the county assessor, is $105,754,504, an increase of approximately $29,000,000 over the taxable valuation for 1918. The estimate for 1919, however, is only approximate, due to the fact that the state's assessors board has not passed upon the assessment figures prepared by the county assessor's office, and to the further fact that the state corporation commission has not yet passed the assessable valuation for 1919 of public service utilities. The totals are based upon the valuation of all lands in the county and cities, $48,966,255, personal property in county and city, $2,328,195, which are nearly current. In addition the valuation of public utilities for 1918, totaling $14,359,870 and taxes, totaling $1,453,250, were used as a basis for the 1919 estimate. It is thought probably that the assessable valuation of the banks will be increased and also public utilities except for steam railroads. The latter will remain at the same figure as shown by the assessment in 1918.

BORROWING PARSON LOSSES HIS "FLOCK"

Thomas J. Brock, Christian Minister of Parsons, Kans., Took Money From Everybody

The resignation of Rev. Thomas J. Brock, minister of the Parsons Christian church who was arrested in Tulsa on July 9 on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses has been accepted by the members of his congregation. After the trial, ratifying the action of the church board of trustees. After numerous rumors had been afloat in Parsons that Brock's credit was being questioned by merchants and business men, a committee of members of the congregation called on him and investigated his financial standing, finding that he was several hundred dollars in debt.

Brock told the men that $850 was all he could afford to pay in legal expenses during the absence of Justice W. H. Williams, who is on his vacation in Colorado, by the members of the Tulsa County Bar association at a meeting held in the county courtroom Tuesday morning.

LEGAL PROCEDURE for the admittance of Lonesome addition into the city will be begun by City Attorney Marshall, upon instruction from the mayor and city commissioners, after they had considered a petition from residents of the addition asking admittance to the city.

FUNERAL SERVICES of Logan T. Wayne, 51 years old, who died Monday night, will be held at the home at Fifth and Cieland streets today. Rev. Charles W. Kerr will conduct the services and the funeral will be in charge of the Masonic Lodge. Burial will be at Rose Hill.

ONE OF THE TULSA boys who was on the firing line the day the armistice was signed, John Loper, has reached Tulsa and is making his home at Glenn station. Loper was overseas one year and six days and was in the St. Mihel engagement from September 12 to September 26 and the Argonne-Meuse October 5 to November 11.

COMPLAINTS HAVE been received by Miss Carrie C. Lovette, county home demonstrator, from women all over the county because the preacher after having been arrested here was turned over to the Parsons police department, but according to members of the Tulsa police department he was not taken outside the town, as he has been seen here at his rooming house where he was arrested several times since his arrival. It is thought that the charges against him were dropped as it is doubtful whether he could be held for the debts.

Resignation Accepted
At the church services last Sunday morning, Brock's resignation was accepted. His actions have aroused the indignation of all Parsons and women outside of his own church, as well as in it and the congregation has asked for an exact detailed statement of his debts to be published.

Brock has given up the ministry for good and is trying to go into business in Tulsa, having applied to a large oil company here for a position as corporation attorney.

STROTHER WILL CLIMB FOR BABIES OF TULSA

The World's Milk and Ice Fund Will Be Boosted Along by Money Turned Over to Human Spider.

"I am going to scale the 14-story Cosden building tonight for the benefit of The World's free milk and ice fund for the poor babies of Tulsa," said Bill Strother, the human spider, last night. "Of course, the poor children need plenty of milk and ice during the hot summer months and I want to do everything to help them along."

The World has arranged that a liberal percentage of the money given to Strother will be turned into the milk and ice fund, and will be used to support the human spider.

Thousands watched Strother when he climbed the Exchange National Bank building several weeks ago and it is expected that a larger crowd will see him when he walks up the Cosden building at 8 o'clock tonight.

"I don't know of any better thing to do than to help the Tulsa babies," said Arthur Hill, Strother's manager. After climbing the flagpole, Strother will sit on the "knob" and read the latest edition of The Evening World to the crowds in the streets.

EXCHANGE TRUST WOULD BUY CITY PARK BONDS

Offer to purchase the recently issued $50,000 city park bonds at par with interest accrued at 5 per cent bonus was made by the bond department of the Exchange National and Trust company of this city by Max Hubbard and city commissioners today while a suggestion was made in a separate communication that this banking and trust company be given the contract to draw up the transcripts of the $5,000,000 Spavinaw water bonds, with the aid of the city attorney and city auditor, and a tentative offer was made to purchase $1,000,000 of these bonds. The compensation for compiling and drawing up the bond transcripts was $5,000, to be paid only in case the trust company did not purchase the water bonds.

To accommodate a customer who is desirous of purchasing some city bonds, was the reason for the offer to buy the park bonds. These bonds, which are dated to run 25 years, are the water bonds, which have not yet been approved.

IF THIN AND NERVOUS, TRY PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Nitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force

When one stops to consider the host of thin people who are searching continually for some method by which they may increase their flesh to normal proportions by the filling out of ugly hollows, the rounding off of protruding angles with the attendant bloom of health and attractiveness, it is no wonder that many and varied suggestions along this line appear from time to time in public print.

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals it is a well-known fact that the lack of sufficient phosphorus in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition. Experiments have demonstrated beyond question that doubtless that a body deficient in phosphorus becomes nervous, sickly and thin. A noted author and professor in his book "Chemotherapy" says: "I find that the amount of phosphorus required for the normal nutrition of man is seriously underestimated in many of our standard text books." It is believed by authorities that this deficiency in phosphorus may now be met by the use of an organic phosphate known throughout English speaking countries as Nitro-Phosphate. Through the assimilation of this phosphate the body takes up the phosphoric content when absorbed in the amount normally required by nature soon produces a welcome change in our body and mind, and especially in the loss of energy and the whole body soon loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and vigor, and the will and strength to be up and doing.

CAUTION.—While Nitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, giddiness, debility, etc., those taking it who do not care to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Adv.
